Thank You from the President

The Sydney Royal Easter Show's annual competitions are a testament to the dedication and passion of our exhibitors, including farmers, growers, breeders, producers, artists, crafters, gardeners, athletes, fanciers, and enthusiasts - all of whom showcase the personal achievements, rich family heritage, and local pride that defines our competition community.

Beyond its cultural significance, the Show also has a profound economic impact, supporting local businesses and communities across New South Wales (NSW) and beyond. The participation of those in this Catalogue makes our event a highlight of the year, and the pinnacle of competition throughout NSW and Australia. I extend my heartfelt thanks to each one of them.

A special thank you goes out to our judges, officials, stewards, and volunteers who generously give their time and expertise. Their contributions are invaluable and ensure the success and integrity of our competitions. We are also deeply grateful for the generous support from our sponsors, Councillors, breed societies, and staff. Your dedication and hard work make all this possible.

As we reflect on another incredible year for the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW, I am filled with immense pride and gratitude for the role that the annual Sydney Royal Easter Show plays in the culture and traditions of generations of Australians. The Show is not just an event, it is a cherished tradition that creates lasting memories and celebrates our agricultural heritage.

On behalf of everyone involved, I wish all our exhibitors every continued success. Together, we will celebrate and elevate Australian endeavour and excellence in all of the varied forms it takes at the Show in April.

JUDGES' PROFILES

Aimee Bolton

BEEF CATTLE PARADERS' COMPETITIONS & STATE FINAL

Aimee is based across regional VIC and NSW and has been involved in the cattle industry all her life. Aimee was privileged to grow up in the industry with stud Red and Black Angus cattle, sharing the passion for breeding, preparing and showing cattle all over the country, with her father. While still running a small herd, Aimee works in the Red Meat Industry, having worked at an operational level with a strong emphasis on MSA grading through to livestock procurement and supply chain optimisation. Aimee is now the Farm Assurance and Supply Chain Manager for JBS where she works across the Beef and Lamb Program focussing on compliance, engagement and sustainability. Outside of work Aimee is proud to be heavily involved with Angus Youth and the Australian Intercollegiate Meat Judging Program, supporting the next generation.

Aimee has been judging for 10 years with her recent appointment being 2024 EKKA Brisbane Royal Red Angus, 2024 Western Australian Youth Camp, 2023 Melbourne Royal Angus and Red Angus, State Final Paraders Competition, Angus, Simmental and Interbreed at 2022 Adelaide Royal, and 2022 Melbourne Royal Interbreed.

Aimee says, "Judging at Sydney Royal is an incredible honour, it is highly competitive and very prestigious. Having competed in the Beef Cattle section and the State Final Paraders a number of times myself and watched many of my mentors assess cattle here, it is a surreal feeling to be at the Sydney Royal Show as a Judge, sharing my opinion."

Sam Bush

OTHER RECOGNISED BREEDS

Sam is now based in Sydney but is still heavily involved in his family farm and Hereford stud in Cootamundra. Sam has been involved in the cattle industry his entire life and actively since he was five years old.

Sam and his parents are heavily involved in the running of Kirraweena Glenholme Hereford Stud that has been in operation since 1953. Sam has been involved in exhibiting cattle at every Sydney Royal Easter Show since he was born and has also shown Steers and Dairy cattle with Hurlstone Agricultural High School for many years. Sam feels privileged to have won the State Final for Beef Cattle Judging in 2012 and was the Runner-Up at the National Final held in Perth.

Sam has been a Hereford Youth Ambassador and was on the executive of the Hereford Youth Group.

Sam has served as Policy Director for the NSW Minister for Primary Industries and lead Agricultural adviser to the NSW Premier.

Sam's first judging appointment was at Crookwell Show in 2013, and more recent judging appointments include Nowra Show and the RAS Youth Show at Sydney Royal in 2022.

Sam has also judged at North Coast National at Lismore and local shows including Gloucester, Wauchope, Finley, Crookwell and Koorawatha.

Sam says, "Judging at Sydney Royal is the pinnacle for me. I have attended every Sydney Show since birth and have always been impressed with the calibre of Judges invited to officiate at Sydney Royal. Judging competitions at Sydney Royal have majorly shaped my judging career, from being runner up in the overall Heifer Show Junior Judging Competition when I was 10 and I was first old enough to participate and winning the State Final in 2012. To be invited to be a Judge at the Sydney Royal is humbling and I am very excited to be stepping back out on the Cattle Lawns in that capacity."

Ben has a deep passion for beef cattle and has been involved in the family seedstock operation his whole life, strongly believing in breeding cattle on type.

Ben has been showing cattle in particular in northern NSW and at Sydney Royal for a number of years, and believes it has given him a broader understanding of beef cattle and breeding direction.

Ben has officiated at many local shows in particular in northern NSW, including Tamworth, Walcha, Quirindi, Gunnedah and Guyra in recent times. One of Ben's latest highlights was officiating at Adelaide Royal show 2024.

Roger is honoured and privileged to be nominated by a breed association to judge at the Sydney Royal saying "the opportunity is greatly appreciated and cherished. To judge at any show is a great opportunity to pass on your own assessment of cattle from many varied beef operations across Australia. The challenge is to pass that opinion onto the Exhibitors and viewing public with educational, concise and polite commentary".

Peter Falls

Sam Parish
SPECKLE PARK

Sam is a passionate advocate for agriculture, particularly the cattle industry, hailing from rural NSW and currently based in Forbes. He has recently re-engaged with the biotech sector through his recent appointment as Project Support Officer at Wise Repro.

With extensive judging experience spanning across NSW, QLD, VIC, ACT, and TAS, Sam was immensely proud to judge at Beef 2024 in Rockhampton, Royal Canberra Show and as an Associate Judge at Royal Launceston Show.

Sam is also the co-founder and host of the Breeder Exchange podcast, which focuses on showcasing cattle genetics and industry trends globally. Sam engages with key industry leaders of all ages, sharing their expertise, challenges, and inspirational personal journeys driven by a passion for all things beef cattle. The podcast also tackles important political issues affecting the industry, even when the impact isn't always positive.

In addition to his judging and podcast work, Sam plays a key role in building relationships with stakeholders across the agricultural sector and manages projects that promote the advancement of top-tier genetics on a global scale.

Sam's Youth achievements include being named the 2023 National Young Beef Cattle Judge and the 2019 National Young Beef Parader.

Jake Phillips
RED ANGUS

Jake is based in Naracoorte, SA and has been involved in the cattle industry for over 20 years. Jake is a partner in Phillips Cattle Company and is the Extension Manager at Angus Australia. Jake was previously the Supply Chain Manager at Teys Australia, buying feeder and prime cattle; and also the Trade Development Officer at MSA and carcass grader.

Jake oversees the Southern Grassfed Carcase Classic which is the largest carcass competition in Australia.

Jake has been judging for 15 years with his recent appointments being Adelaide, Melbourne, and Sydney Royal and the Scone Upper Hunter Beef Bonanza Steer Competition.

Jake says, "Sydney is the pinnacle of judging cattle in Australia, it draws a large crowd and a large exhibition of cattle from across Australia and to walk out onto the judging ring brings goosebumps to me to follow in the footsteps of so many respected and established cattle men and women, who have judged and presented cattle there over so many years".

Hayley Robinson
HORDERN TROPHY

Hayley joins us from Aubigny QLD, located west of Toowoomba, and has been involved in the cattle industry for as long as she can remember.

Hayley and her husband have a small herd of cattle; Angus stud and commercial cattle with a focus on meeting the requirements of the long fed feedlot market. While their base is Angus, they use cross breeding and genetic information to maximise on maternal and eating quality attributes. Hayley currently works with GRDC (Grain Research and Development Corporation) as a Grower Relationship Manager. She has worked with MLA commercial beef companies domestically and abroad. Hayley is passionate about maintaining Australia's reputation for producing excellent quality red meat.

Hayley has been judging for 25 years, starting at the age of 17 as Associate Judge besides RAS NSW Councillor, Michael Millner. She recently judged the 2024 Sydney Royal Easter Show Beef Cattle Paraders Competition and Any Other Breeds Section. She recalls "it was a pleasure to see the future of the beef industry in the ring and witness the enthusiasm of those involved".

Hayley says, "the Sydney Show has always been a great show to compete at and I am proud to have judged cattle in the past as well as being part of the team to show the cattle that won the inaugural Urquhart Perpetual Trophy in 1999. The junior judging competition is one close to my heart. I was fortunate to be awarded the Angus Australia National Judging University of Illinois Scholarship in 2001. My Co-Judge in the Horden Trophy, Diana Wood, also was a recipient of this award. Since then, I have assessed cattle and red meat (yes, there is a forum to judge meat in Australia and abroad!) Internationally. I believe Junior Judging develops skills in critical thinking, quick reasoning and public speaking as well as the confidence to explain decision making to others. These are skills that can be applied throughout a person's career, regardless of the industry".

David Smith
LIMOUSIN

David is from Ben Lomond, NSW and has been involved in the cattle industry for almost 50 years. During this time, David has managed Hereford, Poll Hereford, and Charolais Studs, and has also shown many stud cattle at the Sydney Royal Cattle Show from 1977 to 2013.

David has been judging for the last 38 years, most recently at the 2024 Sydney Royal Easter Show Herefords and Red Angus, 2023 Sydney Royal Easter Show Angus, 2022 Royal Queensland Show, 2022, 2021 and 2019 Sydney Royal Easter Show along with numerous appointments at regional shows.

David says, "it is an honour to be invited to judge at the Sydney Royal, a show that I have been involved with showing cattle for many years in the past".

Ross ThompsonSHORTHORNS

Ross is based in Bathurst NSW and has been involved in the cattle industry full time since 1993 but has been involved with cattle all his life.

Ross operates Millah Murrah Angus Stud with his wife Dimity and family, selling over 200 bulls annually, of which 130 are sold at auction.

Having judged the Interbreed Breeders' Group at the 2024 Show, Ross says "the opportunity to assess the Shorthorn Breed in 2025 will be an honour to perform".

Ross recalls "in the 1980's and 90's, my sister and I showed cattle and horses here as kids and our own children have enjoyed exhibiting here at the Angus Feature Show in 2019 and in 2023 in the Simmental Feature Show". Ross characterises the Sydney Royal as an "iconic event".

Diana WoodHORDERN TROPHY

Diana has been involved in the Angus breed from a young age, growing up on her family's seedstock operation in Coonamble NSW. Diana is a product of the Angus Youth program and notably in 2004, won the University of Illinois Scholarship supported by Angus Australia.

Diana and her family run commercial Angus and superfine merinos on their property located just east of Uralla in the New England region of NSW.

Diana has recently finished up a 10 year role as the Marketing and Communications Manager with Angus Australia.

Diana has judged at numerous country and junior shows and has judged at Perth, Adelaide, Melbourne and Sydney Royal.

Diana considers Judging at Sydney the pinnacle of the Royal Shows in Australia and looks forward to the opportunity this means once again to be involved.
