Royal Agricultural Society of NSW

From the President

On behalf of the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW (RAS), I extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who participated in this year's Wine, Beer & Cider, Distilled Spirits, Cheese & Dairy Produce, and Fine Food competitions. Your dedication and excellence are the cornerstones of our mission to foster a prosperous and sustainable future for Australian agriculture.

Rooted in the vision set forth in the Society's original 1822 Prospectus, our mission is to implant a public spirit of agricultural improvement within the hearts of all. This mission is brought to life through our competitions, which drive innovation and set industry benchmarks for quality and excellence. Your participation not only elevates the standards of produce but also inspires the entire agricultural community.

We are deeply grateful to our Judges, Officials, Stewards, and all volunteers who generously contribute their time and expertise. Their commitment ensures the integrity and success of our competitions. To our RAS Councillors, Committee Chairs, and RAS staff, your meticulous efforts in curating these events are what makes them tick.

I am proud to work alongside such a dedicated team and community. Together, we celebrate and propel Australian agricultural excellence. I trust that you enjoyed your Sydney Royal experience and encourage you to join us again next year.

From Yuzu Ice Cream to Camel Milk Fetta and Rasmalai – Australia’s best dairy products announced.

Thursday 20 February 2025

Australia’s best dairy products have officially been crowned with the Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show announcing its 2025 champions and boasting its highest medal rating to date, with over 91% of products receiving a gold, silver, or bronze medal.

According to Chair of Judges Tiffany Beer, Australian dairy producers have been focusing on techniques to create better textures and well-balanced flavour profiles.

“I congratulate our 2025 exhibitors on a fantastic Show! This year’s judging revealed some outstanding products, with many high-quality dairy products battling it out for the championship spots,” Beer said.

“This year’s results demonstrate that Australian dairy producers are putting quality first. With many utilising the feedback provided by our judges in 2024 and taking the time to refine their products and make the small tweaks that have delivered incredible outcomes.

“As a result, Australian consumers are getting world-class local dairy products right at their doorstep – they are the real winners here!”

For consumers, Beer suggests exploring the hard and white mould cheeses, and even giving some of the sheep, goat, and camel milk products on the market a taste.

“Hard cheeses were a standout class for our judges this year and we saw a huge increase in the quality of white mould cheeses available on the market,” Beer said.

Non-bovine classes also demonstrated a drastic improvement on previous years with 90% of sheep, goat, and camel milk products receiving a medal and almost half being awarded a gold medal.

“Now is the time to be curious about non-bovine products and more specifically camel milk products. For the very first time, we have a gold-medal Marinated Persian Style Camel Milk Feta on our Perpetual Australian Cheeseboard, which is an impressive feat! It really is a marvellous product and a great way to taste a camel milk product for the first time.”

Another major trend noted by Beer is the better development and balance of complex flavours, particularly of Asian and Indian influence.

“Over the last few years, we have seen an increase in flavoured desserts and different flavours in ice cream and gelato such as matcha, green tea and black sesame but what was notable this year was the exploration and maturation of balanced flavour profiles such as Yuzu and sweet potato,” Beer said.

This year Champion Dessert was taken home by Shuddh Dairy for its Rasmalai, which Beer described “as utterly exquisite” while renowned gelato producer Cow & The Moon took home Champion low/reduced Ice Cream or Gelato with a White Chocolate Yuzu gelato.

The 2025 Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show results were announced at an awards night in Sydney last night, with over fifteen champion awards announced for categories ranging from champion butter and cream to champion specialty cheese and flavoured milk.

The Sydney Royal Cheese & Dairy Produce Show is a national competition, and all entries must be made with 100% Australian dairy.
