Sydney Royal
SINCE 1822

Royal Agricultural Society of NSW

From the President

The Royal Agricultural Society of NSW (RAS) is mission-purposed to foster the prosperous and sustainable future of Australian agriculture. The original 1822 Prospectus of the Agricultural Society of NSW acknowledged that a nation flourishes best when the “a public spirit of agricultural improvement shall be implanted within the breast of all”. This is the mission we proudly continue in order to ensure thriving sustainability for generations of Australians to come.

Our mission is accomplished primarily through the time-tested approach of competitions because the very nature of competition drives innovation and excellence. Sydney Royal competitions establish industry benchmarks by which success can be measured year-on-year. Our Committees carefully design competition categories and establish judging panels to ensure the most effective impact on industry and relevant markets.

We know from 200 years of experience that our competitions raise not only the quality of produce but also the calibre of producers. This year was no different, the excellence of every exhibitor across the board is what continues to keep our competitions so highly anticipated and so well regarded. Thank you to every one of our exhibitors, we value your participation greatly.

Thank you also to our Judges, Officials, Stewards and volunteers who give so generously of their time and expertise. To our valued sponsors and supporters, thank you for your continued investment in what we do. It is because of all of you that Sydney Royal competitions continue to drive excellence in Australian produce, and to ensure the sustainability of agricultural practices.

I am delighted to work closely with our RAS Councillors and Committee Chairs and all RAS Staff involved in the Wine, Beer & Cider, Dairy, and Fine Food sections.

On behalf of us all, I trust that you enjoyed your Sydney Royal experience and I encourage you to join in the tradition of entering every year. Together we can celebrate and propel Australian agricultural excellence.

I look forward to seeing you again next year.

2023 Tasmanian Pinot Noir wins Best in Show, making it the youngest red to win the coveted award in over two decades.

A young Tasmanian pinot noir has tonight claimed the coveted Tucker Seabrook Perpetual Trophy for Best Wine of Show at the prestigious 2024 Sydney Royal Wine Show Awards.

The 2023 Bream Creek Vineyard Pinot Noir is the youngest red to win the acclaimed title for over 24 years and is the first pinot noir to claim Best Wine of Show since 2015. It is also the first Tasmanian wine to win since 2016.

Sydney Royal Wine Show Chair of Judges, Sarah Crowe, says the young red was a real standout and she congratulates Bream Creek on a fantastic vintage.

“The young pinot class was a real highlight for our judges this year, and this standard of quality can be reflected in our 2024 Wine of Show winner, the 2023 Bream Creek Vineyard Pinot Noir,” Crowe said.

“For a young red to stand out amongst over 1,700 entries is impressive, and if that wasn’t remarkable enough, it is also the youngest red to win Wine of Show in Sydney in the last two decades, if not longer. It is quite the achievement.

“In addition to the high-scoring young pinot noir class, chardonnay was an absolute delight to assess. Chardonnay is at the top of its game and Australian producers are consistently delivering a world-class wine that rivals any international competitor.

“From the larger producers like Evans & Tate, who took home Best White and Best Chardonnay with the 2022 Evans & Tate Redbrook Reserve Chardonnay, to smaller producers such as Silkman Wines, who claimed Best Small Producer with the 2023 Silkman Wines Silk Chardonnay, the quality of chardonnay Australians are getting is exceptional.”

Across the 52 classes judged during the Sydney Royal Wine Show, the 2024 and 2023 chardonnay class claimed the highest medal count with 118 medals awarded, 9 of which were gold medals.

All wine producing states from across Australia secured a trophy this year, however it was New South Wales that proved it was the state to beat claiming the highest gold medal count and representing 10 out of the 23 wines awarded a trophy. Australia’s largest producing state, South Australia, received the highest overall medal count.

Cooler NSW regions like Orange and Mudgee also made their mark at this year’s Show winning trophies with non-traditional varietals for their regions such as Best Grenache, Best Shiraz, and Best Riesling.

These coveted titles went to Mudgee’s Huntington Estate and Robert Stein winery for the 2023 Huntington Estate Special Reserve Grenache and 2017 Robert Stein Riesling, while Orange’s Mercer Wines won Best Shiraz in the region for the first time since 2011 with the 2022 Mercer Wines Limited Release Shiraz.

Robert Stein Winery also won Best Current Vintage for the 2024 Robert Stein Dry Riesling and Best NSW Wine for the 2023 Robert Stein Reserve Riesling.

“New South Wales did exceptionally well at this year’s show and what really stood out for me was the range of renowned producers who have won trophies with wine varietals that are not traditional to their area. For a Mudgee grenache to not only claim Best Grenache but also be a strong contender for best red is outstanding.”

Brokenwood's 2019 Brokenwood Tallawanta Vineyard Semillon was another NSW standout this year winning not one but three trophies, including Best Semillon, Best Mature White, and Best Single Vineyard Wine.

Twenty-seven trophies were awarded at tonight's Sydney Royal Wine Show Awards, with winners ranging from Best Sparkling to Best Value wine. Out of the 1,754 wines judged, five percent of entries received a gold medal.

"I congratulate all of our producers, and especially our trophy winners, on such a fantastic competition. It has been a challenging time for the Australian wine industry but if I know anything, it is that we are a resilient bunch, and we should all be incredibly proud of the world-class wines we are producing.

"I also want to thank our Judges. When we are in that room, we all have a common goal and that is to help Australian wine get better and stronger in the future. Tonight's awards are a celebration of that goal and of the wineries leading the charge," Crowe said.

Following an impressive three years guiding the Sydney Royal Wine Show, the 2024 competition will be renowned judge, Sarah Crowe's, last year as Chair of Judges following the end of her three-year tenure.

"I feel very proud to have been the Chair of Judges at Sydney Royal," Crowe said.

"It is a great honour, not only due to importance of the show to our exhibitors but also because of the way in which it brings our community together. Judging allows producers to get a deeper understanding and independent review on what they are producing, which is important for development.

"What we are trying to achieve through shows like Sydney Royal is the improvement of the industry together, as winemakers, sommeliers and growers."

In 2025, Sydney Royal Chair of Judges, Sarah Crowe will hand the baton to Hunter Valley Winemaker and owner of De Iuliis Wines, Michael De Iuliis.

As the producer of many trophy winning wines himself, De Iuliis has a long history of judging at some of Australia's most prestigious wine shows and, like Crowe, will bring a wealth of knowledge to the role.

De Iuliis will hold the role as Chair of Judges for the next 3 years including the 200th Anniversary of the first Sydney Royal Wine Show in 2026.

CLASS 5 - Sauvignon Blanc, 2023 and older

JUDGES' COMMENTS: A good class showing the coolness of the 2023 vintage helped to pave way for some balanced and varietal drinks. Best wines had poise and a calmness about them without being over the top with Sauv Blanc 'herb'. A good strike rate shows the quality of the class was very good with not a lot of highlights but some well made commercial wines which should keep the consumer happy.

CLASS 6 - Semillon, 2024

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Great class with a lot of discussion over the top wine. Golds were wines which had great complexity and balance and were good wines now and will most likely become even better with age. Low award or non award wines were either too simple or the mis palate being filled up with RS. but overall, a joy to judge and a plate of freshly shucked oysters would go down a treat with the golds and silvers.

CLASS 11 - Chardonnay, 2024 and 2023

JUDGES' COMMENTS: An exceptional class showcasing the national focus with taking this variety to new heights, and the versatility of this variety in a cooler season. Oak was a key factor, overused in some wines, not always adjusted to the finer fruit profile of the year. Quality fruit, without too much winemaking artifact at this young stage was well rewarded.

CLASS 12 - Chardonnay, 2022

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Another strong showing of the variety, judges were looking for freshness with complexity. A few entries starting to show premature development and largeness. Best wines with balanced oak use and complexity sitting in harmony with the fruit.

CLASS 14 - Other White varietal wines, 2024

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Some really solid wines here. Great drinkability and some exciting varietals are emerging. Some wine slightly unresolved and needed more time to develop complexity and interest. Overall, some good wines but none with the level of completeness to get over the line to gold.

ROSÉ CLASS

CLASS 19 - Rosé, any variety or blend of varieties, any style, 2024 and older

JUDGES' COMMENTS: The new 2024 wines presented a notch above the ageing 2023 entries which were starting to look somewhat tired. Subtle fruit flavour was preferred over residual sugar, freshness without high acids, the top wine presented with an ease of flavour without being obvious in any one way.

RED WINE CLASSES

CLASS 20 - Pinot Noir, 2023

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Fruit weight was a little lacking for some wines. Wines which did well showed fruit weight and fruit handling. Nice concentration and depth of flavour. Would have liked to have seen some more weight in the other wines.

CLASS 26 - Grenache dominant blends, 2023 and older

JUDGES' COMMENTS: A strong line up of wines. The best wines had fresh fruit, balance and varietal character with good layers and complexity.

CLASS 25 - Grenache, 2022 and older

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Wow, what a class. The diversity of the styles were extremely evident and a lot of discussion over styles, tannin structure and ripeness in the class. 18 medals from 20 wines shows the great increase in focus on this variety over the last 10 years and it is paying off. Bravo!

CLASS 28 - Shiraz, 2022

JUDGES' COMMENTS: Obviously there is some regional differences here. The season with a lighter fruit profile needed a judicious oak use, many wines could not carry the toast or amount of oak used. Overall there was a shortage of fruit intensity and suppleness to many of the entries. Many wines with dull colours looking advanced already.

JUDGES' COMMENTS: A challenging group of wines. Some wines lacking freshness and fruit. Whilst some fabulous drinking and probably in their prime. Unfortunately, none had the level of complexity and completeness to get over the line for gold. A few wines with some faults that time has not helped.

ALCOHOL FREE AND LOW

ALCOHOL WINES

CLASS 59 - Alcohol-free and low alcohol wines must be made via the de-alcoholisation process, meaning that grapes are fermented, vinified, and created into a fully alcoholic product, then the alcohol is removed. Low alcohol wines must contain less than 1.15% alcohol by volume. Exhibits must be made from grapes only. Wine products, containing additives such as water, will not be allowed. Any vintage or NV (non-vintage)

JUDGES' COMMENTS: The best had some varietal character and fruit flavour. As sugar replaces mouthfeel, this is the primary characteristic in many entries.
